

Partnership

- Professional arrangements to ensure that parties negotiate to their mutual benefit
- Successful partnership ensures costs are controlled, both parties will work mutually toward resolutions, neutrality, control and confidentiality
- Partnership ensures that the participants are ready to embrace any disputes clearly and in a reasonably objective way to
- Establishment of ground rules while working toward mutually beneficial working relationships as the outcome
- Successful partnership identifies the options and can analyze solutions for all parties.